NARBERTH GOAL, $750

Last week's announcement of the coming campaign in Narberth for the American Legion Endowment Fund for War Orphans set in motion the wheels of organization for real action. It was immediately followed by a meeting of representatives from the Harold D. Speakman Post of the Legion in Narberth with prominent citizens.

On Monday night there was a general meeting and the following given out as the personnel of the Citizens Committee, which has endorsed the work and pledged its efforts to make it a success: Carl B. Metzger, A. Perry Redifer, Charles V. Noel, W. R. D. Hall, Daniel Leitch, Ralph S. Dunne, Fletcher W. Stites, Robert Fellows Wood, Lt. Com. F. T. Van Auken, Frederic A. Lanahan, Harry A. Simpson, Anton E. Wohler, LeRoy A. King, Henry A. Frye, Augustus J. Loos, Thomas E. Knutzen, A. C. Shand, J. J. Cabrey, Arthur W. Burns, Hugh W. Brown, William D. Smedley, Dr. Clarence T. Faries, Mrs. J. T. Hovenstein, Mrs. John F. Smith, Mrs. A. W. Burns and Mrs. Abbie W. Nickerson. Dr. King was chosen as chairman, Mr. Frye as secretary and Mr. Redifer as treasurer.

Several of those present spoke of the various phases of the campaign, the reasons for it and what is proposed to be done with the money. Pennsylvania is among the last of the States to swing into action, for already nearly $4,000,000 has been raised in other parts of the country. Of the total of $5,000,000, Narberth is asked to give $750 toward a permanent fund, which will provide sufficient income without annual solicitations to take care of the wives and children who are being left unprotected for by the deaths of 15 men a day as a direct result of disability caused by their participation in the world war. For six years the Red Cross and various State organizations of the Legion have been working with local agencies to look after the welfare of the ex-service men and their families. But the work reached such proportions in a short while that the Red Cross did not feel justified in continuous expenditure of annual contributions and withdrew its support this year, at the same time suggesting and indorsing the present campaign.

The Legion has tackled the problem with the characteristics of youth and already established four large billets where children are cared for in small cottages and given as much home life as possible. But that only represents an intermediate step. Most important is the effort to save the home if possible and render such assistance to the mother as will enable her to keep her family together. If this cannot be done then the billet is a temporary residence until the child can be placed in a real home.

There is every indication that Narberth will do its share. Among the members of the Legion, their faithful assistants, the Auxiliary and the Citizens Committee, $325 has already been subscribed in amounts ranging from $1 to $25. Next Monday and Tuesday evenings have been set as the time for the active solicitation, and the committee calls upon the residents of our borough to be prepared to make their subscriptions at home or at campaign headquarters then. Mr. John A. Caldwell has donated the use of a new store on North Narberth avenue, just above Haverford, as a headquarters and also as a meeting place for the Citizens Committee at 7 o'clock on Saturday evening.

To those who were spared by the fortunes of war to enjoy more favored circumstances and good health this should be an opportunity to express our gratitude in a real way. As we highly resolved when the turmoil and strife had ceased, let us now renew our pledge to the war dead, lest they say again: "If ye break faith with us who die, We shall not sleep—though poppies grow In Flanders Fields!"

HELP STOP FIELD FIRES

The field fire season will soon be upon us. Any time at all now the fire whistle is liable to blow; the engines and men will be called out, causing them to lose both time and money, to say nothing of the risk involved, all caused by the carelessness of some one in starting a blaze when a strong wind was blowing, or in allowing a small bonfire to burn without attention. Nine-tenths of the field fires are needless, and the firemen implore, beg and beseech everyone to stop, look and listen before starting a blaze that may send them on a needless run.

LIBRARY MEETING SHOWS PROGRESS

Steady Growth Outlined in Annual Report of the Librarian.

18,898 VOLUMES READ

The Narberth Community Library Association held its annual meeting in the library last Monday evening with an attendance of 17 members. Miss Anna MacKeag, the president of the organization, opened the meeting, explaining that the officers elected in May of this year would hold over until October, 1926. The report of the secretary, Mrs. Horace Moore, showed an annual membership of 79 and two life members. The progress of the library for the year was brought out in the report of the librarian, Mrs. Elizabeth K. Wood. This report follows:

Number of books on hand, 3500.
Number of volumes circulated, 18,898.

Number of new borrowers, 314.
Total number in the adult department, 677.

Total number in the juvenile department, 674.

The Narberth Community Library is approaching the close of its fifth year and it finds itself still the object of the ever-increasing enthusiasm and devotion of its founders while it receives more and more generously the cordial support of the community. No year has passed without recording some very definite marks of the progress of the library toward its natural goal, and the year now closing can as "Time" says, "point with pride" to many accomplishments.

The year opened propitiously. On Monday, October 13, 1924, the members of the staff took upon themselves the responsibility of keeping the library open every afternoon from 3 to 5, and on Friday evening from 7 to 9. The community welcomed the increased opportunities thus offered and circulation grew rapidly. So far as the desires of the public are concerned there is no time of day or night when the library could not be of use, and it is one of our regrets that our form of service prevents longer hours of opening.

It was in January, 1925, that the Women's Community Club, in recognition of the necessity for giving the community a fuller opportunity to share in the management of the library, performed a very magnanimous deed. They offered to their community a library, successful and well equipped, that the community with its broader interests might share in carrying on the work, assuming some of the responsibility and providing a wider outlook. Great credit is due the Women's Club for thus placing the interests of the entire community ahead of their own personal satisfaction.

BACK FROM COLORADO

Mr. and Mrs. Robley A. Warner, of North Narberth avenue, returned last Wednesday from a two months' motor tour of Colorado and the Central Southern States.

The trip west was made via New Mexico, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Tennessee, then home through the Shenandoah Valley, and here all the roads were of gravel till the Tennessee State line was reached. The entire trip comprised the passing through twenty States and a distance of 6000 miles.

WINTER ASH COLLECTION

The regular weekly collection of ashes in the Borough is now being made, according to an announcement by Street Commissioner George B. Suplee.

LARGE THRONG AT BIG WYNDHAM FAIR

Novelties Amuse Visitors at Annual Women Voters'
Show.

MIX PETS 'N' POLITICS

Throngs of Main Line residents visited the third annual Wyndham Fair which was given on the estate of Miss Gertrude Ely at Bryn Mawr by the Lower Merion League of Women Voters on Wednesday afternoon. The scene was an attractive one, the picturesque old homestead forming an artistic background on one side and handsome old trees on the other, while the gypsy attire of some of the aides, the gay costume of the Indian "Strongwolf," and the colorful gowns of the women as they circulated among the booths decorated in yellow, gave a pronounced festive note to the occasion.

A big crowd attended the rummage sale, and in the "Old Curiosity Shop," which was held in the rustic summer house, under direction of Mrs. Fletcher Stites, many fascinating antique pieces of jewelry, beads, brasses and glass and china were sold.

Pamahaisaka's Performing Pets proved popular, and while mothers were occupied in their bridge games, the children were enjoying the pony rides, the surprise tree, the games and the ice cream cones.

Many visitors took advantage of the information booth that was in charge of Mrs. William M. Gehmann, Jr., and among those who became members of the League was Mrs. Frederic Manning, formerly Miss Helen Taft.

The directors of the fair, and their assistants, to whom the success of the event was due, are: Mrs. Clarence E. Hall, chairman; Mrs. J. Aubrey Sutton, vice chairman; Mrs. J. A. LaFore, treasurer; Mrs. Dudley Guilford, publicity; Miss Sydney Evans, assistant publicity; Mrs. Newbold Watson, grounds; Mrs. John Huber, tickets; Mrs. Frank Roberts, amusements; Mrs. Herbert Beyer, toys; Mrs. Gideon Boerke, cake and candy; Mrs. Charles Cass, ice cream; Mrs. S. Earle Haines, cards; Miss Barbara Kirk, games; Mrs. W. P. McCormick, fish pond; Mrs. Samuel McCreery, bridge favors; Mrs. Conyers Reed, rummage; Mrs. L. H. Rittenhouse, preserves; Mrs. Franklin P. Sackett, tea; Mrs. Charles Seidel, flowers; Mrs. Frederic Stanger, decorations; Mrs. Frederick Stellwagon, hot dogs; Mrs. Fletcher Stites, curiosity shop; Mrs. W. P. Wattles, fancy work; Mrs. Edward G. Wyckoff, Jr., ponies.

INHERITS FATHER'S ESTATE

Alban E. Reid, of Narbrook Park, was the beneficiary of the $200,000 estate of his father, Alban H. Reid, who died on September 26 in Merion.

The deceased was head of the A. H. Reid Creamery and Dairy Supply Company, of Philadelphia, of which his son is secretary and treasurer. Mr. A. E. Reid will carry on the business.

Mr. Reid's death occurred on his eightieth birthday. For more than half a century he had been in the dairy supply business, having started with a butter-working device he invented while living on his farm near Coatesville. He was active in the business until the time of his death.

THREE NEW BOYS

Three families in Narberth are being congratulated this week on the birth of sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Alonzo Young, of Grove Place, are the parents of John, who was born Thursday. Mr. Young is better known as "Lou" Young, coach of Penn's crack football squad.

John Lamar Vogel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Vogel, of Avon Road, was born Thursday afternoon. He is named after his grandfather, Judge John Lamar Whitten, of Huntingdon, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Mason, of Forrest avenue, are the proud parents of young Paul Sheldon Mason, who joined the ranks of Narberth's sturdy youth Tuesday afternoon.

NEW ENGINE ARRIVES

The new ladder truck of the Narberth Fire Department arrived this week, and is housed in Elm Hall. The doors were changed a few weeks ago to make room for the big engine.

The truck has been about the streets a number of times in the past few days, while various crews of the volunteers have been testing it out and becoming familiar with its operation.

The addition of the new piece of apparatus gives Narberth an equipment capable of handling any emergency which might arise. With modern apparatus and a highly-trained crew, the local company stands second to none among suburban outfits.

COMMUNITY CLUB MEMBERS REMIND OF LUNCHEON

Annual Fall Affair to Be Tenth Anniversary.

Tickets for the annual fall luncheon, which comes October 20, have been sent to all members of the Woman's Community Club of Narberth. This year it is the decennial luncheon as well and, as such, will be better, and we hope bigger, than usual. Mrs. Reinking, Chairman of Hospitality, promises some delightful surprises.

The club expects about twenty-five guests from other nearby clubs to share its celebration. Among them will be Mrs. John A. Frick, president of our district, who will speak to us. Those who enjoyed Miss Elizabeth Harrison's songs at the spring luncheon will be glad to know that she will sing for us again on this occasion. Don't forget to notify Mrs. J. D. Sutherland (444 Woodbine avenue) before Friday, October 16, that you intend to be among those present.

Also please remember to answer the questionnaire recently sent out by our president and send to Miss Runyon speedily.

FIRST MEETING

League of Women Voters to Elect Monday.

The Narberth League of Women Voters will hold the opening meeting of the season of 1925-26 on Monday afternoon, October 12, at 3 o'clock, in the Y. M. C. A.

The annual election of officers occurs at this meeting, so it is hoped that members will turn out in force to choose their leaders for the coming year.

Mrs. H. L. Schwartz, well known in League circles, will be present and give an outline of plans for work adopted by the State and National Leagues for this winter.

GIRL SCOUT TROOPS DIVIDED

After much consideration it has finally been decided to divide the Girl Scout Troop of Narberth into two main divisions. This necessity arose from the increased membership of the troop over that of last year, which was in itself the largest Girl Scout troop on the Main Line.

The one division, to be known as Troop 1, will consist of all Scouts who have not passed their tenderfoot tests and the tenderfoot Scouts. Captain Ruth Naske will act as leader of this group.

Lieutenant Marion Cook will act as captain of Troop 2 and will have the leadership of the second class Scouts.

Among other Scout troops, Narberth will be known as having but one troop. The work during the year will be individually that of the divisions.

The entire body of Scouts will assemble in the gymnasium of the Baptist Church for the opening exercises of the meeting. Then Troop 2 will adjourn to their room downstairs until the end of the meeting when the good-night song will be sung by the Scouts in one group.

It is hoped that by this division the Girl Scouts of each group may make greater progress than by having the Scouts in one body.

AUXILIARY MEETING

The first fall meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Narberth Presbyterian Church will be on this Wednesday, October 14, at 10 o'clock, in the church parlor. All women of the congregation and auxiliary are urged to attend, and your assistance needed. Luncheon at 1 o'clock.

SKELTON ANNOUNCES HE WILL SEEK LUDLOW ASSEMBLY SEAT

CONVERTED BAPTIST WILL HEAD EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The Rev. Dr. Joseph Fort Newton, formerly pastor of the Church of the Divine Paternity, a Universalist church of New York, will become rector of the Memorial Church of St. Paul, Lancaster avenue, Overbrook, on November 1.

The appointment of Dr. Newton is novel. Until recently he was a Baptist minister, but became a convert to the Episcopal church last July, when he was presented for confirmation to Bishop Garland in old Christ Church, Philadelphia, by the Rev. Louis C. Washburn.

When the necessary canonical steps have been taken for his ordination he will become permanent rector of St. Paul's. In the meantime he will preach at the Sunday evening services.

POLICE PROMOTIONS

Miller Made Acting Lieutenant—
King and Vander Veur Moved Up.

Sergeant Albert Miller, who was shot in the Ku Klux Klan demonstration of a year and a half ago, was made acting lieutenant of Lower Merion police at a meeting of the Township Commissioners' Police and Fire Committee last week. He will assist Lieutenant Mullin, who has been in charge of the force during the illness of Captain James I. Donaghy.

Other promotions announced were those of Bernard King and George Vander Veur, two of the oldest men on the force in years of service. They were made acting sergeants.

One of the promotions followed the dismissal of Sergeant Robb.

WYNDHAM SOLD

Wyndham, the home of Miss Gertrude Ely in Bryn Mawr and the site of the annual Wyndham Fair of the Lower Merion Township League of Women Voters, Wednesday, has been sold to Bryn Mawr College. Announcement of the addition of the estate which adjoins the college was made by the President Park in Bryn Mawr last week.

The final arrangements for the transfer of the property will be completed at the October meeting of the trustees of the college.

SHERRON-MYERS

The marriage of Miss Grace Chase Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Myers, of Germantown, to Mr. James Fenton Sherron, Jr., of Narberth, took place Wednesday at Calvary Church, Germantown.

Mr. Sherron is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Sherron, of Price avenue. He attended the Narberth schools, Episcopal Academy and the University of Pennsylvania. He is in the engineering department of the Reading Railway.

After December 1 Mr. and Mrs. Sherron will make their home at 4520 Fern Hill Road, Germantown.

RED CROSS

The first fall meeting of the Public Health and Child Welfare Committee of the American Red Cross, Main Line Branch No. 1, was held on Tuesday, September 29, in its rooms at the Autocar Athletic Association headquarters.

Mrs. Henry C. Farnshaw presided.

The reports of the three clinics of the district for the months of June, July and August were given in by their respective chairmen.

Mrs. Eugene Hooper, chairman of the clinics held in Ardmore every Tuesday and Thursday afternoons reported that 386 cases had been taken care of at the 26 clinics held during the summer months.

Miss M. Louise Townsend reported for her Bryn Mawr clinics held Tuesdays and Fridays that 253 cases were looked after, while Mrs. Walter J. Whitaker reported 70 cases for the West Manayunk clinics, which are held on Wednesdays.

After passing a resolution to join the Pennsylvania State Organization of Public Health Nursing the meeting adjourned, feeling that splendid work had been done during the summer by its most efficient chairmen.

Withdrawal in L. M. Treasurer
Race Seen as Bid for Support.

SCENT COMING BATTLE

Joseph J. Skelton, Jr., of Bala, Lower Merion Treasurer and stormy petrel of township politics, will be a candidate in the 1926 primaries for the Montgomery county first district assembly seat now held by Benjamin F. Ludlow, of Ardmore.

Rumors that Skelton intended to run have been going the rounds since he withdrew recently from the race for Township Treasurer, and this week they got into county public prints. Asked yesterday if there was any truth to them, Mr. Skelton admitted that there was plenty.

"Yes, indeed, I am going to run," he said. "My candidacy hasn't yet worked up to the point where I can tell you if I will have complete organization backing or not," he declared in answer to queries on that point, "but if Ludlow runs again I know I will have it."

The announcement by the Township Treasurer that he would enter the race for the assembly seat gave the Lower Merion political pot another stir that promises to keep it bubbling in a right lively and merry fashion up to the time of the Republican primaries next May.

The first stir was occasioned last week when announcement was made that former State Senator James S. Boyd, of Norristown, would be a candidate for the seat in the State Senate now held by Fletcher W. Stites, of Narberth. Mr. Boyd is close to the county organization, and with the announcement of his candidacy came whispers that he was assured of organization support.

To these Senator Stites replied that he expected to run for reelection.

Neither Senator Stites nor Representative Ludlow are regarded as loyal sons by the organization. Both have strayed from the reservation frequently during their terms in the upper and lower House, and it is declared by political wiseacres that County Leader Charles Johnson, encouraged by the show of organization strength in the recent primaries, is now preparing for a show-down with his insurgent followers. If this be true there will be a fight between independents led by Stites and Ludlow, and the Johnson organization, which will make political history in Lower Merion.

In the Senatorship, it is taken as an accepted fact that Stites will again run. Boyd has so far only been placed in the field in a semi-official way by friends; he has yet to make a public statement that he is actually a candidate.

That he will run, however, there is little doubt. He has been making a round of the county and during the past week conferred with a number of political friends in Lower Merion. During these conferences it is declared he intimated that he would quit the race under no circumstances.

Should the final fight be between Stites and Boyd, the organization will undoubtedly back the Norristown man. But there are prospects of a three-cornered fight.

Burd Evans, another Montgomery Assemblyman, has confided to friends that he may enter the race. Should he throw his hat into the ring he may be taken up by the Johnson machine. Should that happen, politicians are free in predicting that Stites would be re-nominated.

In the fight for the First District Assembly seat, nothing is yet certain. Representative Ludlow, it is predicted, will seek reelection, but he has yet to make a public declaration that he will run once more. In the meantime, Treasurer Skelton is the only one who has officially announced he is in the field.

The Bala man's candidacy has not yet developed to the point where positive predictions can be made as to what factions will be found behind him. He has, how-

TREASURE CHEST AND GIFTS ARRIVE IN ARDMORE

Chamber's Huge Gift Box Erected on Lancaster Avenue.

The Ardmore Treasure Chest has arrived.

Its huge bulk now rests atop an eight-foot-high platform on Lancaster avenue, just where the Merion Title and Trust Co. building adjoins the quarters of the Counties Gas and Electric Co. The Treasure Chest looks big enough to contain all the hundreds of gifts to be distributed by the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce, even the new Buick touring car. The chest is ten feet long, six feet high and six feet wide. Its huge black bands and heavy lock make it apparent at the first glance that the contents are of extraordinary value.

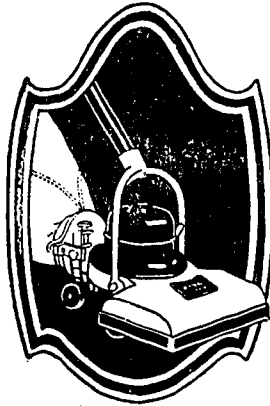

Perched on its platform, the Treasure Chest is an object of much interest by day and night. Hundreds of people have paused to examine it and read the signs which explain its purpose. In the evening the big chest is illuminated by lights from the Counties Gas and Electric Company building.

This huge strong box will remain on display in its present resting place until October 30. Then it will be opened, and its rich contents, consisting of hundreds of valuable articles of all sorts, will be distributed free among the loyal customers of Ardmore's business establishments.

The members of the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce are taking this means of saying "thank you" to their old customers for their past support and of winning new customers.

The merchants of Ardmore say they have already noticed a sharp increase in business as a result of the arrival of the Treasure Chest. They express confidence that shoppers who have heretofore traveled to Philadelphia, at some inconvenience and expense, will quickly learn that it is possible to get equal quality, as well as full value, and save considerable time, money and bother by heeding the motto of the campaign:

ANNUAL MEETING OF COMMUNITY LIBRARY

faction. As a result of this action on their part, a library association was formed in May and the functioning of the Board of Trustees has greatly aided in advancing the work.

In May, also, came the official notice that the Narberth Board of Education had appropriated $500 to the library, which sum was to be spent in purchasing books of standard merit to aid in the education of the children. The relations between the school and the library have been most friendly. The school has sent to the library copies of the required reading lists of the children, and the library has made every effort to supplement the work of the schools by providing the material when possible and making it available to the children. With the appropriation of the school board the library will be far better equipped to carry on this work.

On Monday, May 11, the library took another very important step—it moved into its present quarters. At first the beneficiary of the Women's Club, who then held the lease on the building, it is now the beneficiary of the Merion Title and Trust Company, of Ardmore, who have assured the library the use of the building as long as it is needed. This move has had many advantages. It has given more light and air and far more wall space for shelves and books, and for the simple reason that it can be locked up has simplified the work of the assistants, who for the first time could hope to find the room on the following day in the same condition as it was left on the preceding.

In May, also, came the offer of the Y. M. C. A. trustees of a building on the playground in which the library is to have its own quarters, a room of about the floor area of the one now occupied, of which it is guaranteed exclusive control. This offer of the Y. M. C. A. trustees is a magnificent gift and it solves the problem of permanent quarters. There will be some regret in leaving so central a location as the present one, but the advantage of permanent rooms will more than compensate.

So much for the accomplishments of the year: now for our aims. Based on statistics alone, our record goes in to the State and Federal Government, and thereby comparison with all others gives the Narberth Library a ranking of "good." We listed 3500 books in good condition, having eliminated many as worn out or useless, but we should have, assuming the population of Narberth to be 4000, at least 4000 books. One per capita is the ordinary necessity. We register 1351 borrowers, this being a very conservative number, but we should have 2000, or one-half of our population. This year we have circulated about 19,000 volumes when we should have circulated 24,000 or six per capita. These are figures we should meet if we are willing to ignore our handicaps, our lack of professional training, our limited financial resources. These are but figures to be sure, and it is not our aim to attain them for themselves, but only as they are a measure of our work. But in order to reach for the coming years the highest standard of service we should have on the shelves sufficient books, well selected, to satisfy the needs of the community; we should see that these books are kept in good condition and readily available to the townspeople, while it is the purpose of the staff of workers to serve courteously, competently and sympathetically, until as a result of these efforts our library may stand, though a small one, among the "best."

ELIZABETH K. WOOD,
Librarian.

SEVERAL ACCIDENTS

A number of minor motor accidents occurred during the past week in various parts of the Main Line.

Last Thursday afternoon a truck of the Almar Stores, driven by George Landis, of Philadelphia, struck a Ford touring car at Wynnewood and Bowman avenues, Merion. The touring car, driven by Alex Ferguson, of Merion, turned into Wynnewood avenue and was hit by the truck. No one was hurt.

The same day a car driven by Dave Croff, 855 Moss street, Philadelphia, struck a Ford roadster at Haverford avenue and City line. No injuries, and slight damage.

At Cricket avenue and Cricket terrace, Ardmore, last Friday, a car driven by Ed R. Righter struck Myer Coff, 1338 North Fourth street, Philadelphia, who stepped out from behind another car. Coff was treated for a cut foot by Dr. C. Harold Kistler.

The truck of James Sheridan, of Gladwyne, flared up in Narberth Monday. It was extinguished by the local company with trifling damage.
